Office hours: Wednesdays 1:00-2:00pm or by appointment

Required Readings
Blackboard: https://elms.umd.edu

Course Objectives:
- To develop an awareness of one’s own individual and social identities, as well as an understanding of the social group memberships of diverse others.
- To become conscious of the influence of one’s own cultural identity and to be prepared to monitor, discuss and/or manage the biases rooted in these identities.
- To understand the various forms of oppression, power and privilege as they appear in individual and interpersonal behaviors, intergroup relations, institutional structures, and societal norms.
- To engage in critical analysis of U.S. social, political and economic systems.
- To understand the foundations of effective advocacy for social justice and change.

Course Expectations and Policies

Environment
Students and the instructor share in the responsibility of creating and maintaining an environment conducive to learning. A learning-friendly environment is one that is free of distractions and engages all participants in the learning process. In addition, students and the instructor share the responsibility to provide a “safe” environment where individuals feel free to openly express their thoughts, feelings and reactions. Therefore, all individuals in this course will:
- Use appropriate language and behavior that does not demean or dehumanize any individual or groups, whether or not such individuals are present in the classroom.
- Respect one another’s diverse experiences and perspectives.
- Respect others by listening and responding with thoughtfulness and sensitivity.
- Refrain from conducting private conversations (verbal or written) during class.
- Turn off cell phones and pagers and put away outside work and reading materials.

Attendance and Participation
To get the most from this class, it is imperative that each member attend every class session. Personal perspectives are crucial to the success of this course and it can disrupt class dynamics if one or more students attend on an irregular basis, arrive late, or leave class early. All students are expected to be active agents in their learning and participate in class discussions and experiential activities. Differences in opinion, values, and attitudes are to be expected and the expression of these differences is encouraged. Any student who experiences difficulty in participating for any reason is encouraged to speak privately with the instructor.

In accordance with University policy, absences will be considered “excused” for the following reasons: “illness of the student, or illness of a dependent as defined by Board of Regents policy on family and medical leave; religious observance (where the nature of the observance prevents the student from being present during the class period); participation in university activities at the request of University authorities; and compelling circumstance beyond the student's control.” Additionally, “Students claiming excused absence must apply in writing and furnish documentary support for their assertion that absence resulted from one of these causes.”

Confidentiality

Due to the nature of this course, self-disclosure may occur and sensitive issues will arise. Therefore, confidentiality is expected. Specific details of what is discussed in the class and by whom should remain in the class. However, the instructor cannot guarantee that all students in the course will maintain confidentiality. If you are concerned about or have strong reactions to the material covered in class, please feel free to discuss this with the instructor.

Course Feedback

The instructor may periodically ask for verbal or written feedback from students related to assignments, discussions, experiential activities, or classroom climate. Constructive feedback provided to the instructor is valued and will not negatively affect assessment of class participation.

Academic Integrity

The University has a nationally recognized Honor Code, administered by the Student Honor Council. The Code prohibits students from cheating on exams, plagiarizing papers, submitting the same paper for credit in two courses without authorization, buying papers, submitting fraudulent documents, and forging signatures. The Student Honor Council proposed and the University Senate approved an Honor Pledge. The University of Maryland Honor Pledge reads:

“I pledge on my honor that I have not given or received any unauthorized assistance on this assignment/examination.”

Unless you are specifically asked to the contrary, the Pledge statement should be handwritten and signed on the front cover of all papers, projects, and other academic assignments submitted for evaluation in this course. Students who fail to write and sign the Pledge will be asked to confer with the instructor. For more information on the Code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Student Honor Council at: (301) 314-8450, or visit their website at: http://www.shc.umd.edu/.

Academic Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities

In both compliance with and in the spirit of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), we would like to work with you if you have a disability that is relevant to your work in this course. If you have a disability (documented or otherwise) and wish to discuss academic accommodations, please contact your instructor as soon as possible. It is the student’s responsibility to inform the instructor at the beginning of the semester that she/he has a documented disability. It is also the student’s responsibility to provide written documentation from DSS indicating appropriate accommodations.

For more information about Disability Support Services, please visit: http://www.counseling.umd.edu/DSS/.

Commitment to Multiculturalism

The Department of Counseling and Personnel Services is committed to creating an environment in which individuals’ diversity and opinions are respected. Faculty members strive to integrate multicultural and diversity issues in their courses in ways relevant to course content and process. We hope students will contribute their unique perspectives to this effort by considering and raising issues related to multiculturalism and diversity—and respecting others’ outlooks through this course.

Religious Observances

The University System of Maryland policy on religious observances provides that students should not be penalized because of observances of their religious beliefs; students shall be given an opportunity, whenever feasible, to make up within a reasonable time any academic assignment that is missed due to individual participation in religious observances. I will work with you if class meetings or assignments conflict with your religious practices; please contact the instructor immediately to discuss such conflicts.

Course Evaluation UM Fall 2009

Your participation in the evaluation of courses through CourseEvalUM is a responsibility you hold as a student member of our academic community. Your feedback is confidential and important to the improvement of teaching and learning at the University as well as to the tenure and promotion process. CourseEvalUM will be open for you to complete your evaluations for fall semester courses between Tuesday, December 1 and Sunday, December 13. Please go directly to the website www.courseevalum.umd.edu to complete your evaluations starting December 1. By completing all of your evaluations each semester, you will have the privilege of accessing online, at Testudo, the evaluation reports for the thousands of courses for which 70% or more students submitted their evaluations.

Assignments

You are expected to turn in all assignments on the due dates listed. If an assignment is turned in late, a ½ letter grade will be deducted from your final grade of the assignment, for every day that it is late. Assignments are to be turned in during class or on Blackboard in *.doc format as specified. If an assignment will be late due to a compelling reason, please notify the instructor as soon as possible.

Grading Structure

- Class Participation (Attendance, In-class Participation, & Mini-Assignments): 20%
- Reaction Papers: 10%
- Socialization Paper: 20%
- Midterm: 20%
- Final Exam: 20%
- Final Reflection Paper: 10%
- Extra Credit: up to 5 pts.

Class Participation

Attendance is mandatory in this course and will be given significant consideration in grading of this course. Active involvement in class discussions, activities, and assignments is essential for maximizing learning and is therefore is also given appropriate consideration in the grading of this course (see also “Course Expectations”). Attendance will be taken at the beginning of every class.

If you are unable to attend class, you are expected to notify the instructor before the class meeting. You are required to turn in all assignments on time, and you are expected to contact other students to obtain missed notes, announcements and other materials. Handouts for only those who missed class will be available in my mailbox across from my office. Points will be awarded for attendance and participation for each class period. Students will receive points for coming to class on time, being prepared for class (e.g., completing readings and assignments; coming prepared to discuss the material, etc.), participating in discussions and activities, and completing any in-class assignments. Tardiness, being unprepared for class, and/or not participating in class discussions, activities, and assignments will result in a reduction in a loss of part or all of the attendance and participation points for that class period. More than one (unexcused) absence will significantly lower your participation grade, as will late arrival to or early departure from class.

Reaction Papers (Every Friday at 10am on Blackboard)

Expectation: Students are expected to complete all required reading and assignments on time and be prepared to discuss them class. You will turn in a brief reaction paper based on the readings every week. This paper should contain your personal reaction and/or personal opinions regarding the assigned readings. The paper should be fairly brief; however, the expectation is that they will be well thought out and will reflect broad themes of the readings for the week. Consider the following when generating your reaction paper:

1. What was covered in the readings?
2. What are your reactions to the topics in the readings? Why do you think this is so?
3. What do you believe is society’s response to the topics in the readings? Why do you think this is so?

Grade: ✓, ✓+ or ✓-
Length: 1 page
Margins: 1”
Font: 12-point Times New Roman
Document Type: *.doc
Save as: LastName_FirstName_Journal##.doc i.e. Hong_Vanessa_Journal01.doc

Socialization Paper (Optional Outline Due February 19th at 10am on Blackboard, Final Paper Due March 5th at 10am on Blackboard)

Expectation: Reflect upon and demonstrate your understanding of the complex and pervasive nature of your own socialization.

Carefully examine your own socialization (what you learned while growing up) for two of the social identities explicitly addressed in this course (sex/gender, sexual orientation, religion, race/ethnicity, ability status, or socioeconomic class) following the framework of the “cycle of socialization” outlined in the reading by Harro (2000): the beginning, first socialization, institutional and cultural socialization, enforcements, results, actions, and directions for change. Also, examine what you ultimately learned about those who are members of agent groups and those who are members of target groups.

Generate specific memories of messages you received in your childhood or early teens regarding your social identities. How were these messages sent and reinforced through culture and institutions? How did your behavior change in response to these early messages? This paper should include specific incidents in your life that are related to your socialization and your reflection back upon how these incidents made you feel at the time.

The paper must use proper spelling and grammar, and include the honor code.

Grade: up to 100%
Length: 4-5 pages
Margins: 1”
Font: 12-point Times New Roman
Citation Format: APA
Document Type: *.doc
Save as: LastName_FirstName_SocializationPaper.doc i.e. Hong_Vanessa_SocializationPaper.doc
You have the option of submitting an outline of the paper in *.doc format by 10am on February 19th on Blackboard. Feedback will be provided only for those who submit an outline by the deadline. Please title it in this format: LastName_FirstName_Draft.doc i.e. Hong_Vanessa_Draft.doc

Midterm (March 31st in class)

The midterm will include all material covered up until that point. Topics covered on the midterm will include conceptual frameworks (social identity, self-awareness, socialization, power, privilege, and oppression), race & ethnicity, gender, and social class. The focus of the midterm will be on understanding and application of concepts. The format of the exam will be short answer.

Final Exam (May 19th 8-10am in class)

The final exam is cumulative and includes all material covered in the semester with a stronger focus on material covered since the midterm exam. Topics covered will include conceptual frameworks (social identity, self-awareness, socialization, power, privilege, and oppression), race & ethnicity, gender, social class, but will focus on ability, sexual orientation, religious oppression, and social justice. The focus of the final will be on understanding and application of these concepts. The format of the exam will be short answer.

Final Reflection Paper (Due on May 5th by 10am on Blackboard)

Expectation: Build from all of your reaction papers and reflect on your learning over the course of this semester. Integrate learning from readings, class discussions, and/or experiential activities (citing at least 5 examples). You should specifically highlight ways in which your understanding of your own social identities has deepened/changed over the course of the semester.

The paper must use proper spelling and grammar, and include the honor code.

- Length: 3-5 pages
- Margins: 1"
- Font: 12-point Times New Roman
- Document Type: *.doc
- Save as: LastName_FirstName_FRP.doc i.e. Hong_Vanessa_FRP.doc

Extra Credit (Due on April 23rd 10am on Blackboard):

Students have the opportunity to complete one of two extra credit opportunities, but neither are required.

EDHI288 Expectation: A total of 5 composite score points (5 points to your final grade) will be awarded for taking and completing (attending all classes) one of the EDHI388 one credit courses which are part of the “Words of Engagement” program. Partial credit will not be awarded. Information about this program can be found at http://www.ohrp.umd.edu/WE/about.html.

Research Paper Expectation: Write a research paper on one of the topics discussed in the course including at least seven sources from peer reviewed journal articles and five other sources. Topics can be chosen from anything discussed in the course, but the topic must be confirmed with the instructor by April 9th. Late work will not be accepted. Partial credit may be awarded based on quality of work.

The paper must use proper spelling and grammar, and include the honor code.

- Length: 10 pages
