The William “Bud” Thomas Jr. Award

The 2013 Bud Thomas Award recipient is Greig Stewart. Established in 2003, the award honors outstanding members of the profession who exhibit excellence in mentoring between higher education professionals and graduate students.

Greig earned his doctorate in Counseling and Student Development at American University. He currently serves as the Executive Director of the College Park Scholars, a well-regarded living learning community at the UMD. Greig is an excellent example of integrating research and practice in his daily life as evidenced by the wonderful contributions to the field. As a member of our affiliate faculty, Greig has offered his expertise and thoughtful approaches to helping our graduate students develop the critical skills that are needed to be effective practitioners. He has supervised graduate assistants, hosted summer apprentices, and served as an advisor to countless Master’s students. Greig’s dedication to our community of scholar-practitioners is deeply appreciated. Congratulations to this outstanding mentor.

Congratulations and Updates!

Congratulations to our newest and proud almost done PhD students who successfully defended their dissertations. We are SO proud of each of you:

Three New Faculty Members

We are simply busting with pride about the recent appointment of several of our graduates and/or soon to be graduates as faculty members in institutions across the country. With these three fine folks educating the next generation of faculty and practitioners, we are truly headed in a wonderful direction! Congratulations one and all!

Jay Garvey - accepted a position as Assistant Professor of Higher Education in the Department of Educational Leadership, Policy, and Technology Studies at the University of Alabama.

Claire Robbins - will permanently join the Virginia Tech faculty as an Assistant Professor of Higher Education.

Beth Niehaus – accepted a position as an Assistant Professor in Educational Administration at the University of Nebraska.
Alumni News

Candace Doane is the next president elect of the Maryland College Personnel Association! She is Director of Community Living at Goucher College. Hail to the Chief of MCPA, Candace. Yahoo!

Alicia B. Harvey-Smith was appointed president of River Valley Community College. This is amazing! What a wonderful thing to have an institutional president from our midst. We know Alicia will be a visionary leader for this community college.

Justin Fincher is the new Senior Director for Advancement at The Ohio State University. In his role, he works for the Senior Vice President and develops long-range plans, manages division-wide projects and advises on opportunities to maximize talent and organizational effectiveness. It all started with an apprenticeship back in the day that stoked the passion for development work. We are so glad you are working with people you love and are now part of the OSU Terp Family!

Zaneeta E. Daver was named the Assistant Executive Dean of the Spring 2014 voyage of Semester at Sea. It is her 20th anniversary of sailing as a student in college. How cool is this? Anchors away, Zaneeta. Here’s hoping it is all smooth sailing.

John Salazar has a new position as Director of Student Success at Monmouth College this coming June! We are proud of you, John.

Trent A. Engbers will be returning to his hometown of Evansville, Indiana to teach in the Political Science Department at the University of Southern Indiana. His research continues to focus on leadership and community involvement. How great it will be for Trent to be close to family and for his own children to enjoy a little grandparent love. Congratulations, Trent!

Damien Franze has accepted a new position at UMD, moving across campus from the Program Coordinator for Student Entertainment Events to the University Honors Program Coordinator. The folks in the Stamp are weeping, but are so thrilled that they get to keep Damien in close proximity to his Stamp home. Damien will be taking on a new job coordinating orientation and other programs for University Honors students. He will be terrific in this role!

Researchers to Study Impact of Maryland Dream Act

Michelle Espino and Colleen O’Neal will start investigating the impact of a landmark state law that allows undocumented immigrants to attend Maryland public universities at in-state rates. Passed in November 2012, the Maryland Dream Act gives students new opportunities, but also forces them to reveal their citizenship status, something K-12 schools in the state don’t require. They plan to track these students’ stress, emotions and academic performance from senior year of high school through college graduation, as well as study the policies and procedures of higher education institutions throughout the state and how these affect this group.

The research combines two areas of expertise: Espino studies educational pathways, particularly for Latino students, and O’Neal studies stress and resilience in minority and immigrant children.

RJ Holmes-Leopold was selected to become the 2016 Conference Chair for the Pre-Law Advisors National Council Quadrennial Conference. In the meantime, he is chairing the 2013 Midwest Association of Pre-Law Advisors Annual Conference which will be held in St. Louis in October, 2013. RJ always was an amazing multi-tasker! We are thrilled for you, RJ.

Tracy Tyree Boulette has been appointed Vice President of Student Affairs at Southern Connecticut State University starting in July. This is a wonderful appointment of a talented scholar-practitioner. Congratulations, Vice President Tracy.

Jason Chan will be starting the PhD program in Higher Education & Organizational Change at UCLA this fall. What a wonderful addition you will be to the UCLA community of scholars, Jason!

Preview 2013 Welcomes Admitted Students

They say “it takes a village to raise a child,” but as we know, it also takes a patient and caring community to implement a successful Preview! Nestled in the middle of conference season and spring break, Preview 2013 welcomed 33 admitted students to the Student Affairs and Higher Education communities. Led by Preview advisor Dr. Michelle Espino and Preview co-chairs Jen Eliason (Higher Education), Alicia Peralta (Higher Education), and Lena Kavaliauskas Crain (Student Affairs), the Preview sub-committee co-chairs, student volunteers, Concentration faculty, affiliate faculty members, and alumni created a welcoming and informative environment. Many thanks for their contributions:

Housing and Transportation: Ann Ho Becks and Candice Staples
Student Relations: Laura Brant and Chrystal George Mwangi
Employer Relations: John Bonvechio and Jaison Cooper
Logistics: Sarah Grebow and Dr. James McShay
Community Events: Courtney Oddman and Mark Rivera
Programming: Kelly Cowdery and Paola Hernandez
Web/Tech Support: Sean Pepin

Deserving of special thanks are this year’s Preview sponsors:

Stamp Student Union, especially Marsha Guenzler-Stevens and Marie Jenkins
Department of Counseling, Higher Education, & Special Education
Department of Fraternity and Sorority Life
Department of Resident Life
Office of Student Conduct

Thank you for your generosity and commitment to the program!
