

University of Maryland Department of Special Education

Doctoral Program in Secondary and Transition Leadership

This Ph.D. program prepares scholars to work in higher education or federal/state government agencies and school systems.

Funding is Available for Full Time Scholars

As a doctoral scholar, you will be exposed to cutting-edge research and empirically-validated methodology to prepare you for your future role as a scholar, researcher, teacher educator, or leadership professional.

For additional information on the University of Maryland's graduate programs and to apply on-line, go to www.education.umd.edu/EDSP

Tuition fellowships are available for a limited number of students. Applicants who accept tuition fellowships, which are provided through a grant from the U.S. Department of Education, must agree to work in special education for two years for each year of financial support.

For more information, contact:

Paula Maccini, Ph.D.
maccini@umd.edu
Secondary Special Ed.

Debra Neubert, Ph.D.
dneubert@umd.edu
Secondary Special Ed.,
Transitions Services

Sherril Moon, Ph.D.
moons@umd.edu
Secondary Transitions,
Severe Disabilities