Improving Learning Strategies for Literacy:
Research and Practice

An International Research Conference on
First and Second Language (L1 and L2) Literacy Strategies

Saturday, Nov. 2, 2002
8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Adele Stamp Student Union
University of Maryland, College Park, MD

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Michael Pressley
Michigan State University

“Defining Effective Literacy Instruction”
Registration fee-$95
(Special rates: school teachers-$65; graduate students-$35)

ATTENTION TEACHERS:
Pre-Conference Professional Development Workshops

Friday, Nov. 1, 2002
1 to 5 p.m.

Choose from “Self-regulating Strategy Development:
Making the Writing Process Work”
Steve Graham and Karen Harris

or “Dealing with Learning Disabilities in the L2 Classroom”
Roberta Lavine and Teresa Cabal-Krastel

Registration fee-$45
(Special rates: school teachers-$35; graduate students-$25)

Who Should Attend:
K-12 Teachers in ESOL, Reading, Special Education and Other Content Areas;
Teachers in Adult ESOL and Literacy;
School Administrators and Teacher-Trainers;
Researchers and Scholars;
Graduate Students

FEATURED SPEAKERS:
Peter Afflerbach, Patricia Alexander,
Neil Anderson, Anna Uhl Chamot,
Andrew Cohen, Carisma Dreyer,
Madeline Ehrman,
Rebecca Oxford, Nae-Dong Yang

International speakers from Japan, Malaysia,
New Zealand, South Africa, and
Taiwan will offer presentations at the conference.

EARLY REGISTRATION DEADLINE EXTENDED TO OCT. 18, 2002
To register, visit our web site: www.education.umd.edu/EDCI/info/IntlConf2002

Conference Sponsors: University of Maryland College of Education, Graduate School, Office of International Programs